Zoning/Ordinance officer report May 11, 2023

I have left messages with our attorney with a response that he would contact me. So far no word so I can not give an update on the Middleton case.

I found some progress being made on a property behind the curtisville mall. If I continue seeing progress I will not need to issue a citation.

The new tax roll still shows the same lady still owns the property. I was informed that she had passed away. I will now go after the tenant.

I sent out 2 letters this week to the property owner as well as the tenants, This property is on Webster Rd. I heard from the tenant today. She informed me that she and her grandmother are trying to get a big dumpster. Also told her that the abandoned vehicles need to go. They have titles for the vehicles so they should not have trouble scrapping them. I will check to see if the dumpster is there on Tuesday.

I have issued 5 Land use permits in the last month. I have had other calls looking for permits. Waiting to hear from them.
